Netball Team

Congratulations to all girls in the Netball team for their great successes in recent matches:

Ballykeel (4) Carniny (18)
Kells (0) Carniny (23)
Portglenone (2) Carniny (14)

I wish the team every success in all forthcoming matches.

Football Team

Carniny Primary School hosted a Group Stage of the Senior Cup Tournament on Friday 6 February 2015.
Results:

Gracehill 3	Carniny 0
Br'shane 0	Carniny 1
Carniny 2	Portglenone 1

Carniny was placed in Joint 1st position with Broughshane PS with both schools having two wins each. Congratulations to all team members.

Parking on Carnview Park and Old Cullybackey Road

PSNI has brought to the school's attention some parents are still blocking driveways, double parking and parking on lined areas on Carnview Park and on the Old Cullybackey Road when collecting children from school. In the interests of our children's safety and in showing courtesy to local residents I urge all parents to consider this matter.

Pedestrian Entrance on Old Cullybackey Road

Following consultation with Transport NI it has been agreed to re-open the lower Pedestrian Entrance on the Old Cullybackey Road.

School Photographer

"Cool for School Photography" will be in school on Monday 9 March to take individual and family photographs.

All children are expected to wear the formal school uniform (white shirt, tie, Grey trousers/skirt white knee length socks (girls) and black shoes.

Families with pre-school children should come to school at the beginning of the school day - from 8.30am.
